Here I am to Worship

By Darla Noble

All the earth will worship you, and will sing to you; they will sing to your name. Selah.
– Psalm 66:4

One of the biggest controversies in the Christian church over the last generation revolves around the music.

Traditional hymns or contemporary music? Piano or drums and guitars? The debate has caused real rifts in congregations. But why? Why are people so divided?

Most people assume it has something (or everything) to do with tradition. But after talking to a good number of people on both "sides" of the music debate, I can tell you the real reason is WORSHIP.

Music is a powerful catalyst to worship. And just like people enjoy different genres of books or movies, Christians are not all alike when it comes to which genre of music prepares their hearts and souls to worship.

hymn, or praise chorus, or something you just make up) is a joyful sound to His ears and to His heart.

It's not about the tempo or the accompaniment, but about the heart from which we sing.

Heavenly Lord,
Please help us sing with worshipful hearts.
Please give each member of God's church a heart of cooperation and brotherly love.
Let love for You be the wellspring of all my worship.
In Jesus' name I pray, Amen.

Communion at Community

Communion for November will be on the first Sunday, November 3rd..

If you or someone you know would appreciate home communion, please let an active Elder know. Pastor Dale Lint will be available on Tuesdays.

As Christians, we are called first to worship and honor God. Secondly, we are to love and serve one another. So, as brothers and sisters in Christ, I want to encourage everyone to remember that every song you sing to the Lord (whether it's a

Community Presbyterian Session Meeting October 8, 2019

The Session met on Tuesday, October 8, 2019
Elders Present: Raejean Furne, John Hammer, Bev
Logsdon, Pat Oehlerking, Joyce Roeschke, Leola
Willits

Elders Excused: Joe Garthright
Elders Absent: Darwin Brink, Becky Holbrook
Also Present: Clerk-Nancy Todd, Moderator-Retired
Pastor Dale Lint

During the month of September, Pastor Dale made 64 visits with people, and served Communion to 9.

Bev Logsdon will represent the church at the Presbytery
Meeting at the Camp on October 26th.

The LED church sign has been purchased. It was decided at this meeting to mount it to the front of the church rather than on a pedestal in the yard.

The FAMILY group has asked to use the church for Santa's House on December 13th (setup) and 14th.
The Session approved this activity.

The next regular meeting will be held on Tuesday,
November 12th at 7:00 p.m.. Please contact Nancy
Todd if you wish to add an item to the agenda.
