Call to Worship

L: We have come to worship the living God

C: who knit us together when we were yet unnamed, and welcomes us with a parent’s embrace.

L: We have come to worship the almighty God.

C: who searches us and knows our hearts, and still loves us completely.

L: We have come to worship the eternal God,

C: who seeks us wherever we are and shepherds us with a guiding hand.

Hymn #356 “Come Thou Fount of Every Blessing”

Call to Confession

We are called by our Lord to come and gather before Him, sharing the confessions of our heart as we seek His grace and forgiveness:

* Prayer of Confession (unison)

O Lord, you have searched us and know us. You know when we cultivate kindness and our lives bear fruit that blesses the world. You know, too, when our words sow seeds of discord and our actions choke out generosity and grace. When we produce more weed than wheat, forgive us. As we wait with eager longing for you reign to be revealed in our midst, plant with in us gifts of love and mercy, so that we might live as children of the kingdom and bear fruit that enriches your harvest.

Assurance of Pardon

Know that forgiveness starts with our own willingness to forgive and our willingness to confess our sins. Through Christ’s shed blood, know that you are forgiven.

Gloria #579

Sermon

“What do you do while you wait”?

Affirmation of Faith – Jesus Christ, the eternal and only-begotten Son of God, born in the fullness of time of the Virgin Mary, is, in the mystery of the Incarnation, truly God and truly Man. In His life and teaching He revealed God’s holy will, fatherly love and saving purpose. Though sinless, He died on the Cross for our sins. He was raised from the dead in triumph over sin and death to reign as Lord. He is exalted as our Advocate and Intercessor. He will come again in glory as Judge and Savior to accomplish the final victory. (from the 1968 Presbyterian affirmation)
